HOME PAGE

For the last 8 months, Janky Company has performed thousands (maybe millions) of services throughout the Chicago land area. You don't have to check our math on that. It's right. And if not, well we're not math geniuses.

We're a family-run, semi-dedicated group of amateurs who want to bring your dream to life (or at least as close to life as we can get it). We can do anything from simple cleaning, woodworking, home construction and renovations, to commercial buildings. Anything we can't do I'm sure we can find on YouTube.

Our services include:

- Woodworking
- Kitchen Remodeling
- Construction
- Babysitting
- Tire cleaning
- Math tutoring
- How to find anything on YouTube
- Basements
- Watching paint dry
- Eating tacos
- Roofs
- Vacuuming car mats
- Rebranding (not to be confused with refinishing or remodeling)
- Chocolate Chip Apology Cookies

And we do about half of these quite well!

The Janky Promise:

All sales are final. If you're not completely satisfied, we can offer some homemade chocolate chip cookies as an apology. And that's a promise.

OUR TEAM

Brian Veitch, Owner, and CEO

Brian's spent the last 10 years doing odd jobs for friends and family. The payment was usually a pizza or chocolate cookies. It wasn't until the summer of 2020 did he realize he can make a career out of it. The most common thing you hear Brian say is "Eh. Good enough." You may think that's a sign of lack of quality, but he argues that's why we can keep our prices so cheap.

Chuck Stump, CFO, and Craftsman

Chuck's been around for a while. But at the age of 70, he's still kicking. He loves tedious jobs like cleaning carpets, holding the tools, and pointing out mistakes. He does his best work when it's hidden. For example, he loves to show off his fantastic craftsmanship that, sadly, is in the back of a hallway closet. You need to move the jackets and household supplies to eventually see it. When you do, though, you'll be impressed.

Adam Stump, Office Manager, and Craftsman

Adam loves the job as long as he's not the one planning it. "Just tell me when to show up and I'll bring the beer... I mean water," is one of his favorite sayings. He promises he only does that a few times and he'll never operate heavy machinery. Although, that's usually followed up by a wink. Don't worry though. He claims he just has something in his eye.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

“You can have it done right or you can have it done cheap!”

You might think our stance is “have it done right.” That’s what most companies will sell you. They’ll sell you on their “quality.” Not us. We’ll get your dream built... as long as you don’t dream too big. And maybe add some flaws in that dream. For example, small gaps in the roof or cabinet doors that don’t quite close. Even if they end up with large gaps, we’ll supply a water bucket for no charge – minus the delivery fee and overnight international shipping. What other company would do that? Wait, I think I got off point.

Why do people buy used cars or shop at secondhand stores? They understand the value of money. The average person doesn’t have $10,000+ to spend on a new fancy car with all the unnecessary gadgets like power steering, seatbelts, or front airbags. You buy a new car for $10,000, just to drive it off the lot and lose 95% of its value? That’s crazy. Why buy a new $85 dress shirt when you can find one secondhand for $3.99? It may not be pretty but it will get the job done. You end up buying used because you know the price is right and the quality is “good enough” just to get by. And that’s our philosophy.

While I was in training my instructors told me I can pass with a C. And even though they also said I could never run my own company or build anything someone would want, here I am running my own company and building stuff some people sort of want.

If you want something done and can’t afford the “quality” those other companies offer, then come check us out. It will be cheap, good enough, and most importantly... it will cheap.

GALLERY

Check out a selection of our work.

Farmhouse Kitchen Table / Outdoor Picnic Table

You may look at this table and say things like “Ewww”, “I can’t show that off,” or “I wouldn’t even burn that. Looks like it might contain some bad juju.” I did build these hoping they would be used as indoor kitchen tables. But luckily one of Janky’s services is “rebranding.” After a few not-so-subtle complaints (thanks Bill from Lockport) I decided to sell these as outdoor rustic picnic tables for children. We also sell handcrafted tablecloths if you ever want to cover this gorgeous piece of furniture.

3D Terrain Chess Board

We love to take ordinary things around the house and turn them into a thing of beauty. Chessboards give the appearance that someone smart lives here. But it’s a whole new level when you can make a chess set look artistic, clever, or interesting. The 3D Terrain Chess Board has your two sides fighting down in a valley while the King and Queen view the battle from the top of the opposing hills.

We used red oak and can stain or paint it to any two contrasting colors you’d like. You may choose any type of wood, but keep in mind that the price of the chessboard will vary based on the type of wood you choose.

Chocolate Chip Apology Cookies

Although there are no refunds for our amazing work, we do offer our delicious chocolate chip apology cookies. Most of the time we deliver them before we start the job. Based on my experience, I usually see the customers eating the cookies and crying when they see how awesome we built their dreams.
